

AUA appoints Dr. Robert Bagramian Dean of College of Health Sciences

Oakland, CA - The Board of Trustees of the American University of Armenia Corporation (AUAC) has approved the appointment of Dr. Robert Bagramian as Dean of College of Health Sciences.

Dr. Bagramian is an accomplished scholar and the recipient of many awards in the dental and public health spheres. He currently is a Professor in the Schools of Dentistry and Public Health at the University of Michigan, where he also served as a Professor and Chair in the Department of Community Dentistry for seventeen years.

AUA President, Dr. Haroutune Armenian welcomed Dr. Bagramian in his new position, "Dr. Bagramian is a highly respected academic with a distinguished and international reputation. His teaching career spans over four decades at major universities including the University of Michigan, University of California, University of Berne, Switzerland and the National University of Singapore. I am confident that Dr. Bagramian will have a significant impact on the MPH program and AUA in general based on his academic and administrative experiences, his ability to work with a variety of key constituencies including governments, agencies and individuals, and his successful development of training and health service programs both in the United States and internationally."

Dr. Bagramian holds a Ph.D in Public Health from the University of Michigan, School of Public Health, and a DDS Degree from the Temple University School of Dentistry in Philadelphia. He provides consultancy services both nationally and internationally, and serves as Chair of the Dental Health Section of the American Public Health Association.
