THE U.S. AMBASSADOR TO ARMENIA MEETS WITH AMCHAM LEADERSHIP

On 13 January 2017, AmCham leadership was honored to meet with the U.S. Ambassador to Armenia, Richard M. Mills, Jr., and Raphael Sambou, Economic and Commercial Officer of the U.S. Embassy in Armenia to discuss AmCham's strategic priorities and overarching goals for 2017. The participants discussed issues relevant to the "U.S. – Armenia Joint Economic Task Force" and our bilateral "Trade and Investment Framework Agreement," both of which are geared towards deepening economic ties between the two countries. U.S. Ambassador Richard Mills expressed his willingness to meet with AmCham leadership and members on a regular basis and his readiness to further work with AmCham to enhance and strengthen the U.S.-Armenia trade and economic partnership.

AMCHAM PARTICIPATES AT THE OPENING CEREMONY OF THE CENTER OF STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

On 12 January 2017, AmCham participated in the opening ceremony of the Center for Strategic Initiatives led by the RA Prime Minister, Mr. Karen Karapetyan. According to the Prime Minister, the creation of the Center was one of the key RA Government priorities and was formed with the principle of public-private sectors partnership. AmCham has started to work with the Center to build productive working relations and continue its discussions for a better business environment in Armenia.
