

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

So many wonderful people have worked so hard and supported me so much to make easier all the sufferings and hardwork that this paper preparation required. I cannot even imagine what would I have done without them. Now, when I ended up writing of my Master's Essay, I am so happy and I want to cry 'Thank You!!!' to all who have contributed, no matter how much, to it.

My special thanks are to my faculty advisor Dr. Donald Fuller. I really appreciate his advices and support. All the directions he gave have really played an important role for me while writing down this Essay. His bright personality and intellectual integrity became an inspiration and a brilliant example for me to follow.

I am very grateful to Vigen Sargsyan, an External Relations Expert at the World Bank (branch of Armenia), for providing me with almost all appropriate materials and resources that were so useful for me. His really gold advices made my work much more effective.

I also want to thank my friend and colleague from my class, Vahe Isahakyan. He had encouraged me, and his advices and resources that he provided to me played as a great input for my valuable work.

As I do not want to miss anybody, I would not name people further. I just want to express my gratitude to all the staff of the AUA, especially to that of the Department of Political Science and International Affairs and to the staff of AUA Papazyan Library. I am truly grateful for their encouragement and belief, and I'd like to thank them all.
