You are encouraged to present a public lecture on our weekly seminar series held on Thursdays from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. in the Small Auditorium.

The purpose of these seminars is to make students & staff (including other institutions) aware of what you have been doing in your area of respective specialty that may prove interesting and meaningful to people here in Armenia.

The following are the available dates for signing up,

Date	Speaker	Subject
April 11
April 18	Movses Kaldjian	Computer generated hole shapes for least stress.
April 25
May 2
May 9
May 16

I would like to receive your response by Friday April 5 in order to proceed with its implementation. Artak Hambarian will assist us in coordinating & getting started.

The attached is an acceptable sample used previously for announcing the seminar.

Thank you for your cooperation.
