AUA STRENGTHENING BONDS OF FRIENDSHIP NATIONWIDE

In March 2005, Dr. and Mrs. Jack and Marie Saroyan graciously hosted a reception in their home, and together with San Francisco Bay Area supporters, raised essential funds to benefit AUA's student scholarship program.

Chair of the Development Committee, Mr. Sam Simonian and his wife, Sylvia, opened their home in Dallas, Texas in May 2005 to introduce new friends to AUA and garner support for the University's programs.

Mrs. Seta Semerjian, Dr. Ara Tekian, Dr. Haroutune Armenian, and Mrs. Shoghagh Hovanesian

In Chicago, Illinois, long-time faculty member in AUA's College of Health Sciences, Dr. Ara Tekian, welcomed colleagues and friends to hear on progress of the AUA during a recent fundraising reception at his home.

The Armenian General Benevolent Union (AGBU) continues to highlight AUA's achievements in public and community lectures. In March, AUA President, Dr. Haroutune Armenian, was the keynote speaker at the San Francisco-Oakland AGBU Chapter's luncheon honoring veteran AGBU supporters and commemorating the Armenian Genocide. In May, Chicago's AGBU Chapter hosted a public lecture featuring President Armenian on 'AUA and its Role in Shaping the New Armenian'.
